A CELEBRATION OF BLACK HISTORY MONTH

To celebrate and recognize Black History Month at Calvary Church, we will feature on the cover of the Sunday Bulletin portraits of African-American Hymn Writers.

Charles Albert Tindley (1851-1933), born in Maryland before the American Civil War, he was a freeman in a state that enslavement remained legal, in fact Tindley's father was enslaved. He taught himself to read and write and as a young man Tindley moved to Philadelphia, where he learned Hebrew at a synagogue and would later on learn Greek through Boston University. Although his formal education was minimal, he became an ordained minister in the Methodist Episcopal Church and served congregations throughout the Delmarva Peninsula. As a composer, he is recognized as writing the basis for the Civil Rights Anthem, We Shall Overcome, which is derived from his hymn, I'll Overcome Someday. Another spiritual hymn by Tindley that remains in the United Methodist Hymnal is Stand By Me (1905).

Following their move to Philadelphia, Tindley and his spouse Daisy became members of the East Calvary Methodist Episcopal Church, where he worked as a janitor before obtaining his ordination. Later, he would return to East Calvary as pastor. After his death in 1933, East Calvary would be renamed "Tindley Temple," in recognition of life and work. Tindley Temple United Methodist Church was listed on the National Register of Historic Places in 2011.

C. A. T. "Ye shall overcome if ye faint not." C. ALBERT TINDLEY.

1. This world is one great bat-tle-field, With fore-es all ar-rayed;
2. Both seen and un-seen pow-ers join To drive my soul a-stray,
3. A thousand snares are set for me, And mountains in my way;
4. I fail so oft-en when I try My Saviour to o-bey;
5. My mind is not to do the wrong, But walk the nar-row way;
6. Tho' many a time the signs ap-pear, Of an-swer when I pray;

If in my heart I do not yield, I'll o-vercome some day.
But with his word a sword of mine, I'll o-vercome some day.
If Je-sus will my lead-er be, I'll o-vercome some day.
It pains my heart and then I cry, Lord, make me strong some day.
I'm pray-ing as I jour-ney on, To o-vercome some day.
My Je-sus says I need not fear, I'll be like him some day.

CHORUS.
I'll o-vercome some day (some day), I'll o-vercome some day;

If in my heart I do not yield, I'll o-vercome some day.

Psalm 13 *

How long, O LORD? Will you forget me forever? How long will you hide your face from me? How long must I bear pain in my soul, and have sorrow in my heart all day long? How long shall my enemy be exalted over me? Consider and answer me, O LORD my God! Give light to my eyes, or I will sleep the sleep of death, and my enemy will say, “I have prevailed”; my foes will rejoice because I am shaken. But I trusted in your steadfast love; my heart shall rejoice in your salvation. I will sing to the LORD, because he has dealt bountifully with me.

The Lord’s Prayer * . . . . . #895 UMH

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Scripture * . . . . . 1 Thessalonians 5:1-11 NRSV

1 Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers and sisters, you do not need to have anything written to you. 2 For you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. 3 When they say, “There is peace and security,” then sudden destruction will come upon them, as labor pains come upon a pregnant woman, and there will be no escape! 4 But you, beloved, are not in darkness, for that day to surprise you like a thief; 5 for you are all children of light and children of the day; we are not of the night or of darkness. 6 So then let us not fall asleep as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober; 7 for those who sleep at night, and those who are drunk get drunk at night. 8 But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, and put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. 9 For God has destined us not for wrath but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, 10 who died for us, so that whether we are awake or asleep we may live with him. 11 Therefore encourage one another and build up each other, as indeed you are doing

Choral Response †* . . . . . “Glory Be to the Father” — #70 UMH

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Amen.

Gospel †* . . . . . John 3:1-17 NRSV

1 Now there was a Pharisee named Nicodemus, a leader of the Jews. 2 He came to Jesus by night and said to him, “Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God; for no one can do these signs that you do apart from the presence of God.” 3 Jesus answered him, “Very truly, I tell you, no one can see the kingdom of God without being born from above.” 4 Nicodemus said to him, “How can anyone be born after having grown old? Can one enter a second time into the mother’s womb and be born?” 5 Jesus answered, “Very truly, I tell you, no one can enter the kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit. 6 What is born of the flesh is flesh, and what is born of the Spirit is spirit. 7 Do not be astonished that I said to you, ‘You must be born from above.’ 8 The wind blows where it chooses, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit.” 9 Nicodemus said to him, “How can these things be?” 10 Jesus answered him, “Are you a teacher of Israel, and yet you do not understand these things? 11 “Very truly, I tell you, we speak of what we know and testify to what we have seen; yet you do not receive our testimony. 12 If I have told you about earthly things and you do not believe, how can you believe if I tell you about heavenly things? 13 No one has ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven, the Son of Man. 14 And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, 15 that whoever believes in him may have eternal life. 16 “For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life. 17 “Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him.

Leader: The word of God, written by the people of God, for the people of God.

NEW COMMUNICATIONS REQUEST FORM

A Message from Calvary's Director of Communications, Karen Ferguson

in the interest of streamlining the communications process at Calvary, a new Communications Request Form has been implemented. This form can be found on the Calvary website under the Contact section. You can reach this form directly by visiting the following link:

<https://calvarypqh.com/contact/comm-request.php>

Moving forward this form must be used by everyone for every communications request at Calvary. This includes Pastor Shane and also church members that are not part of the Church Council. Communication requests include everything that is announced or publicized at Calvary on either print or digital media. This includes, but is not limited to, bulletin announcements, Facebook posts, upcoming events, meetings, church calendar requests, mass emails, etc...

Communications is such a huge umbrella at Calvary and a large amount of time is required to address the multiple requests and needs of our congregation while maintaining the brand that has taken years to cultivate. This form will streamline our communications process. It also puts all of the timelines and requirements in one place so that expectations are managed and understood by myself as well as the person or group making the request. I have details the timelines below.

Please review the form and let me know if you have any questions. Thank you so much for your patience as we work together to improve our communications process at Calvary.

Communications Request Guidelines

Weekly Bulletin: Announcements or events for the bulletin must be submitted by noon on Wednesday for inclusion in the following Sunday's bulletin. For announcements that you wish to have run more than once, please include the dates you'd like to have it run. You are responsible for your content.

Church Calendar: Fill out the request form indicating it is a Church Calendar request listing all of the details of the request. Church office staff will respond to your request within 48 hours.

Facebook: Facebook posts can be submitted at any time. Posts or edits will be made as soon as possible, but there may be up to 24-48 hours between submission and execution, so please provide info as early as possible. You are responsible for your content.

Website: Changes, additions, edits, announcements, etc... for the website can be submitted at any time. Website changes will be made as soon as possible, but there may be up to 7 days between submission and execution, so please provide info as early as possible. You are responsible for your content.
